

Foster Multiply and Connect Adult Education

2018-1-IT02-KA204-048201

Item	The role of ICTs in education in South Africa
Introduction	This case study substantiates that a central role of educational technology is to provide additional strategies that can be used to address the serious environmental and educational challenges faced by educators and students in higher education.
Type of institution involved	Higher Education Institution
Title of the methodology used	The role of ICTs in higher education in South Africa: A strategy for addressing teaching and learning challenges
Type of educator	Higher education educator
Tool/tools used	Lecture notes online, streaming videos of lectures, DVD, Multimedia including digital video, audio clips and animations blogs, forum information gateways.
Main Challenges, Key Success and Enabling Factors	The challenges were in identifying and conceptualizing ways that educational technology can usefully contribute to student learning experiences, curriculum and pedagogical designs
Lessons Learnt and Recommendations	Technology alone is not a solution to the educational challenges faced in South Africa
Country	South Africa
Name of the Institution/ Education Center	University of Cape Town, South Africa

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

The European Commission support for the production of this publication does not constitute an endorsement of the contents which reflects the views only of the authors, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.