

FUTURE

Foster Multiply and Connect Adult Education

NEWSLETTER - OCTOBER 2020

The Project

FUTURE (Foster, Multiply and Connect Adult Education) is an Erasmus+ KA2 project in the field of Adult Education, aiming to investigate good practices among different organisations in order to create the right environment in adult education to embrace the digital revolution. In particular, the project objective is to analyse and understand possible future scenarios in the field of adult education, in relation to the use of digital tools and methodologies such as: educational processes, classroom dynamics, inclusive learning and adult learners teaching methodologies. FUTURE was born from an initiative of the European Digital Learning Network and its members.

FUTURE KIT

Great news: the final version of the FUTURE Kit is about to be delivered!

It Includes:

- 50 case studies on the most effective methodologies and practices in digital education, analysed and explained to be Inspirational for adult educators.
- A database of online digital tools to be implemented in your class, selected and classified by project partners according to different purposes and characteristics.

The FUTURE Kit has been developed in English, but will be soon available in Italian, French, Spanish, Greek, Slovenian, Bulgarian, Polish and Maltese!

Last Transnational Meeting

Thursday 1st of October the FUTURE consortium has gathered to hold the last Transnational Meeting of the project! The meeting took place online, due to the current sanitary emergency brought by the covid-19 pandemic.

All partners acknowledged with pride and satisfaction the positive outcome of project results delivered so far, as the FUTURE Kit received very positive feedback from the educators involved in the pilot test.
