

FUTURE

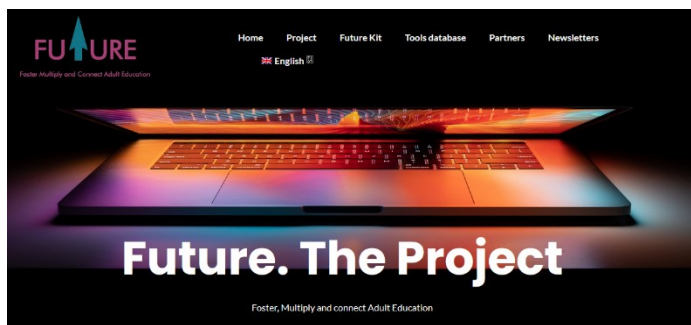

Foster Multiply and Connect Adult Education

NEWSLETTER - JANUARY 2020

The Project

FUTURE (Foster, Multiply and Connect Adult Education) is an Erasmus+ KA2 project in the field of Adult Education, aiming to investigate good practices among different organisations in order to create the right environment in adult education to embrace the digital revolution. In particular, the project objective is to analyse and understand possible future scenarios in the field of adult education, in relation to the use of digital tools and methodologies such as: educational processes, classroom dynamics, inclusive learning and adult learners teaching methodologies. FUTURE was born from an initiative of the European Digital Learning Network and its members.

FUTURE Best Practices are out!

The first brick of the FUTURE Kit, i.e. the collection of best practices in digital learning, is now available on the project website!

All the partners teamed up to investigate the latest trends in digital education, analysing a wide range of innovative tools and methodologies applicable to adult education and transferable to other fields.

The case studies have been selected according to their potential of being inspirational to educators at different levels, aiming at a broad replicability and scalable at different levels!

Stay tuned to get all the latest updates about the FUTURE KIT!
